From a Novel by _____ JOHN ERS LAN

(This story was adapted for the screen to give our viewers a peak into the future of the class of 1957. Any resemblance to actual persons living or dead is purely intentional.

My name . . . GARRY WEBB. I'm a cop. The time Friday, September 12, 1962. 8:05 A.M. I enter the office of Springfield Twp. Academy of Appreciated Arts and Applied Sciences. Academy Dean ROBERT ARBOGAST is waiting. PATTI LESSAK and SUE MEEKINS, absorbed with office duties, nod in my direction. The Dean leads the way into his private office. Then he faces me and says, "It shouldn't be hard. You can find him. I've tried. We've all tried. We've failed. But you can do it. You can find him. It shouldn't be hard for you. I know you can find him."

So it began. The case of the missing V. I. P. Disappearance first noted Monday, September 7, 1962. Five days have passed. No leads. Interrogation of witnesses reveals no clues. Leaving the Dean's office, I encounter Secretary MILDRED DAVIS and office boy, BILL HOOVER. They won't talk!

The hall leading to the Cafeteria is deserted. Suddenly Professor PAT PURSLEY appears. She knows nothing about the case. I enter the Cafeteria. GAIL MELLINGER and HAROLD MILHOAN, co-owners of the Mmmm Optic Company, are deep in discussion, unaware of the prevailing puzzlement. Question Cafeteria cooks PEGGY POPE, YVONNE THEODORE, JEANNE FINLEY, JUDITH WILE, and NANCY SZUTA. No help. I leave the Cafeteria.

ELSIE HEFFERNAN and JUDY HELLER approach. They are working their way through college by ushering in a down-town movie house. They report that they had seen the missing person six days before. This is of little help.

I go to the second floor. Sitting in a small room bearing a sign which reads "Sprag Room", is Editor CAROLYN HORN and copygirls CAROL BAUGHMAN and LENORA BENNETT excitedly discussing the disappearance of the popular dark-haired V.I.P. and the "Extra" that will soon hit the halls. They can, however, offer no information as to his whereabouts.

8:45 A.M. People moving about in rash confusion. Elbowing my way through the hall, I ascend the south stairway to the third floor. Lying on the top step, a discarded notebook. I pick it up. On the cover is scribbled the initials "B. H." Inside, pages of diagrams of team plays. I pocket the notebook.

Continuing down the hall, I meet ROBERT VAUGHN, PAUL LANGENEK, and ROBERT MC COY, visiting fire inspectors. They say they are unaware of the disappearance, but had noticed something suspicious going on in the Music Department. With this hot tip, I hurry to the lower corridor under the Gym. Heading for the dressing rooms are the "Hackinsack Globe Trotters," JOYCE COOPER, DONNA EARLENBAUGH, MARTHA FABRY, JO ANN CARVER, and LAVONNE CLIFFORD, who have just arrived for their appearance in an exhibition game assembly for the student body. They have just heard of the mystery and promise to get in touch with me if they happen to pick up any information.

A left turn brings me to the Band Room. Inside professional twirlers KAREN BRADY, VALERIE DOUGLAS, JOAN THARP, and ANN DOYLE are giving free instruction to the majorettes who are practicing to the music of Danceland's Downbeat Darlings HAROLD BRIGGS, DELLA GARDUNO, BRUCE MCEWEN, LEROY MARTIN, PATRICIA FLUKE, BARBARA HARTMAN, and DALE SWAN. Apologize for the interruption and proceed to the Vocal Music Room where BETTE VIAL, ELVIE DENNISON, PERRY RAMSEY, GEORGIA VAFIADES, CONNIE ANDERSON, SHERRY ARCHER, and JUDY ANKENY are working out their own version of "Hound Dog." Sounds like a howling success.

Receive a message from headquarters that a man answering description was seen leaving the school grounds in auto-magnet RONALD GOLEC'S platinum-plated Pontilac. Left the building and cruised the area. Stop at EUGENE COCHRAN'S Spartanette where mobile carhops GLEN EDWARDS, and JERRY MOBLEY race up on their motorbikes, only barely avoiding a collision. I give them the facts. They say a car answering the description had stopped, but left without ordering. They agree it headed South.

12:33 P.M. Return to building. Still no break in the case. Lieutenant JERRY STEWART and Detective PAUL PFLAUM arrive for stake-out.

1:00 P.M. Hear a deafening roar from the Stadium. Find Coach JOE POTH of the Kansas City Cannon Balls introducing the members of his line-up to the crowd. "MARVIN TAYLOR," Poth bellows. "All right, you guys, let's hear it for the fellas" chorus the team's cheerleaders, JANET SNYDER, DEANNA SEWELL, and ANN CAMPBELL. TIM LAUBSCHER, TOM RANKIN!

Rah rah rah! and a cheer for our missing person. Rah?

1:10 P.M. Return to building for further investigation. A citizens' committee composed of VIRGINIA ENOS, SANDRA HALL, PAUL PROUDFOOT, RICHARD ROBERTS, and GERALD SNYDER had been called in. They, too, were unable to help. Continued investigation.

7:00 P.M. Crowd beginning to arrive for game between "Kansas City Cannon Balls" and Hackinsack Globe Trotters." That Hollywood sensation, Daphne Dimples (alias ARMANDE HELLER) arriving with her press agents RICHARD SPIDLE, DONALD SPINKS, and BILL STAFFORD attracting much attention. So are RUTH HENDRICKSON, PAT JOHNSON, and ANN JURKOSHECK, syndicated gossip columnists, each arriving in pastel MIGS chauffeured by BRIAN OLSON, CLOYD PARSONS, and GERALD SUTTON, respectively.

Unmindful of the commotion, BARBARA CORBIN, JANICE LAYNE, and DELORIS LANCE continue to sell tickets while JIM JACKSON and TOM YATES operate the turnstile. LINDA ROBINSON, PEGGY CARPER, and KATHERINE ROBINSON are trying to soothe the restless crowd while selling programs. Referees JAMES WHEELER and DENNIS WILSON are in a huddle at the 50-yard line. Tension continuing to mount as the missing V. I. P. still has not appeared. ALMA MC CUNE, DONNA MAGNUS, CAROL MARKLES, NINA CRAVENS, JOYCE PATTON, LEONA RABER, NINA RIBBLETT, and BONNIE RITZ seated in the reserved section appear very disturbed at the delay. Still missing is the V. I. P. who is to blow up the football!

Anyone having any information concerning the whereabouts of BOB HENRY, please notify the nearest F.B.I. office or your local police station. People are waiting. The game must go on.

Each grade in the high school is represented on Student Council. The Council is primarily concerned with school relations and school improvement and has, as its special project, the operation of the concession stand at all home basketball games. With last year's profits, members selected and purchased pictures for each room in the new 12-classroom addition.

Officers this year are president, Jim Selvia; vice-president, Don Stewart; secretary, Suzanne Meekins; treasurer, Dixie Baker.

Election into National Honor Society is the highest honor a high school student may attain. An over-all scholastic average of 88% is necessary for a student's name to be placed on an eligibility list which is submitted to the faculty for consideration.

On the basis of character, leadership, service and scholarship no more than 5% of the junior class and 15% of the senior class may be selected for membership.

Donald Keith is president; Pat Pursley, vice-president; Janet Snyder, secretary; and Bette Viall, treasurer.

The purpose of the Senior Service Club is to create and extend throughout the school and the community the high standards of Christian character and Christian fellowship.

Among the officers are: Jim Selvia, President; Lloyd Igleheart, Vice-President; Bob Arbogast, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mike Weyrick, Chaplain.

The Junior Service Club strives to promote clean speech, clean athletics, clean sportsmanship, and clean living.

Bill Selvia is President; John Heffernan, Vice-President; Earl Swan, Secretary-Treasurer; and Larry Royer, Chaplain.

The members of Varsity S are student players and managers who have received at least one varsity letter. The officers are President, Gary Webb; Vice-President, Robert Mitchell; Secretary, Conway Anderson; Treasurer, Jim Justice.

Membership in Haromano is open to all sophomore, junior, and senior girls who have attained a scholastic average of 85% in five subjects or 87½% in four subjects. High scholarship, good fellowship, and good, clean morals are encouraged by this club.

Valerie Douglas is President of this group with Jerrie Ramsey, Vice-President; Betty Ann Jones, Secretary; and Patsy Brookover, Treasurer.

Future Teachers of America is open to all students interested in teaching as a career. Each year the members have an opportunity to visit and teach classes in the various grade schools in the township. In this way, they find out whether or not they like to work with children.

Phyllis Ford is President, with Joy Fluharty, Vice-President; Margaret Ford, Secretary; and Dona Gilbert, Treasurer.

The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America is to further the members' interest in the art of homemaking. Pat Pursley is President; Gail Melinger, Vice-President; Yvonne Theodore, Secretary; Peggy Pope, Treasurer; and Elvie Dennison, Historian.

The purpose of Thespians, national society for high school dramatists, is to create a more active and intelligent interest in high school dramatics.

Qualifications for membership are based upon a point system.

The Dramatic Club was organized to further the interest of students in dramatics by providing them with the experience of both directing and acting in student productions.

Lela McCaslin is President; Marilyn Meller, Vice-President; Kenny Hosey, Secretary; Connie Dayton, Treasurer; and Charlie Walker, Recorder.

The Debate Club is made up of students from each of the four classes. These students are organized into four negative and four affirmative teams which meet with teams from other schools to debate topics selected by the Speech Association of America.

Kappa Chi attempts to promote the feeling of Christian fellowship throughout the school. Membership is open to any student interested in clean, wholesome fellowship.

Dave Hohlbaugh is President; Lolita Perkins, Vice-President; Joni Snyder, Secretary; Patti Plaster, Treasurer; and Esther Durst, Social Chairman.

The Girls' Athletic Association is interested in promoting a spirit of sportsmanship and good fellowship as well as an interest in athletics.

Joyce Cooper is President, with Louise Burket as Vice-President; Dorothy Wallace, Secretary; and Lois Burket, Treasurer.

Membership in the Camera Club is open to all students interested in photography.

Tom Eisentrout is President; Carolyn Horn, Vice-President; Anita Pry, Secretary; and Pat Johnson, Treasurer.

The Co-op training program, under the supervision of Mr. K. O. Myers, is open to all seniors who are at least 16 years of age.

Providing practical vocational instruction and experience in retail and wholesale jobs, each student must work at least 15 hours per week, while attending two classes in Sales and Merchandising per day, in addition to other required high school work.

Officers of Co-op are Harold Briggs, president; Elbert Holloway, vice-president; and Lola Knappenberger, secretary-treasurer.

Mike Thornhill was high salesman for the class in their advertising sales campaign, proceeds of which pay one-half the cost of the Spartana.

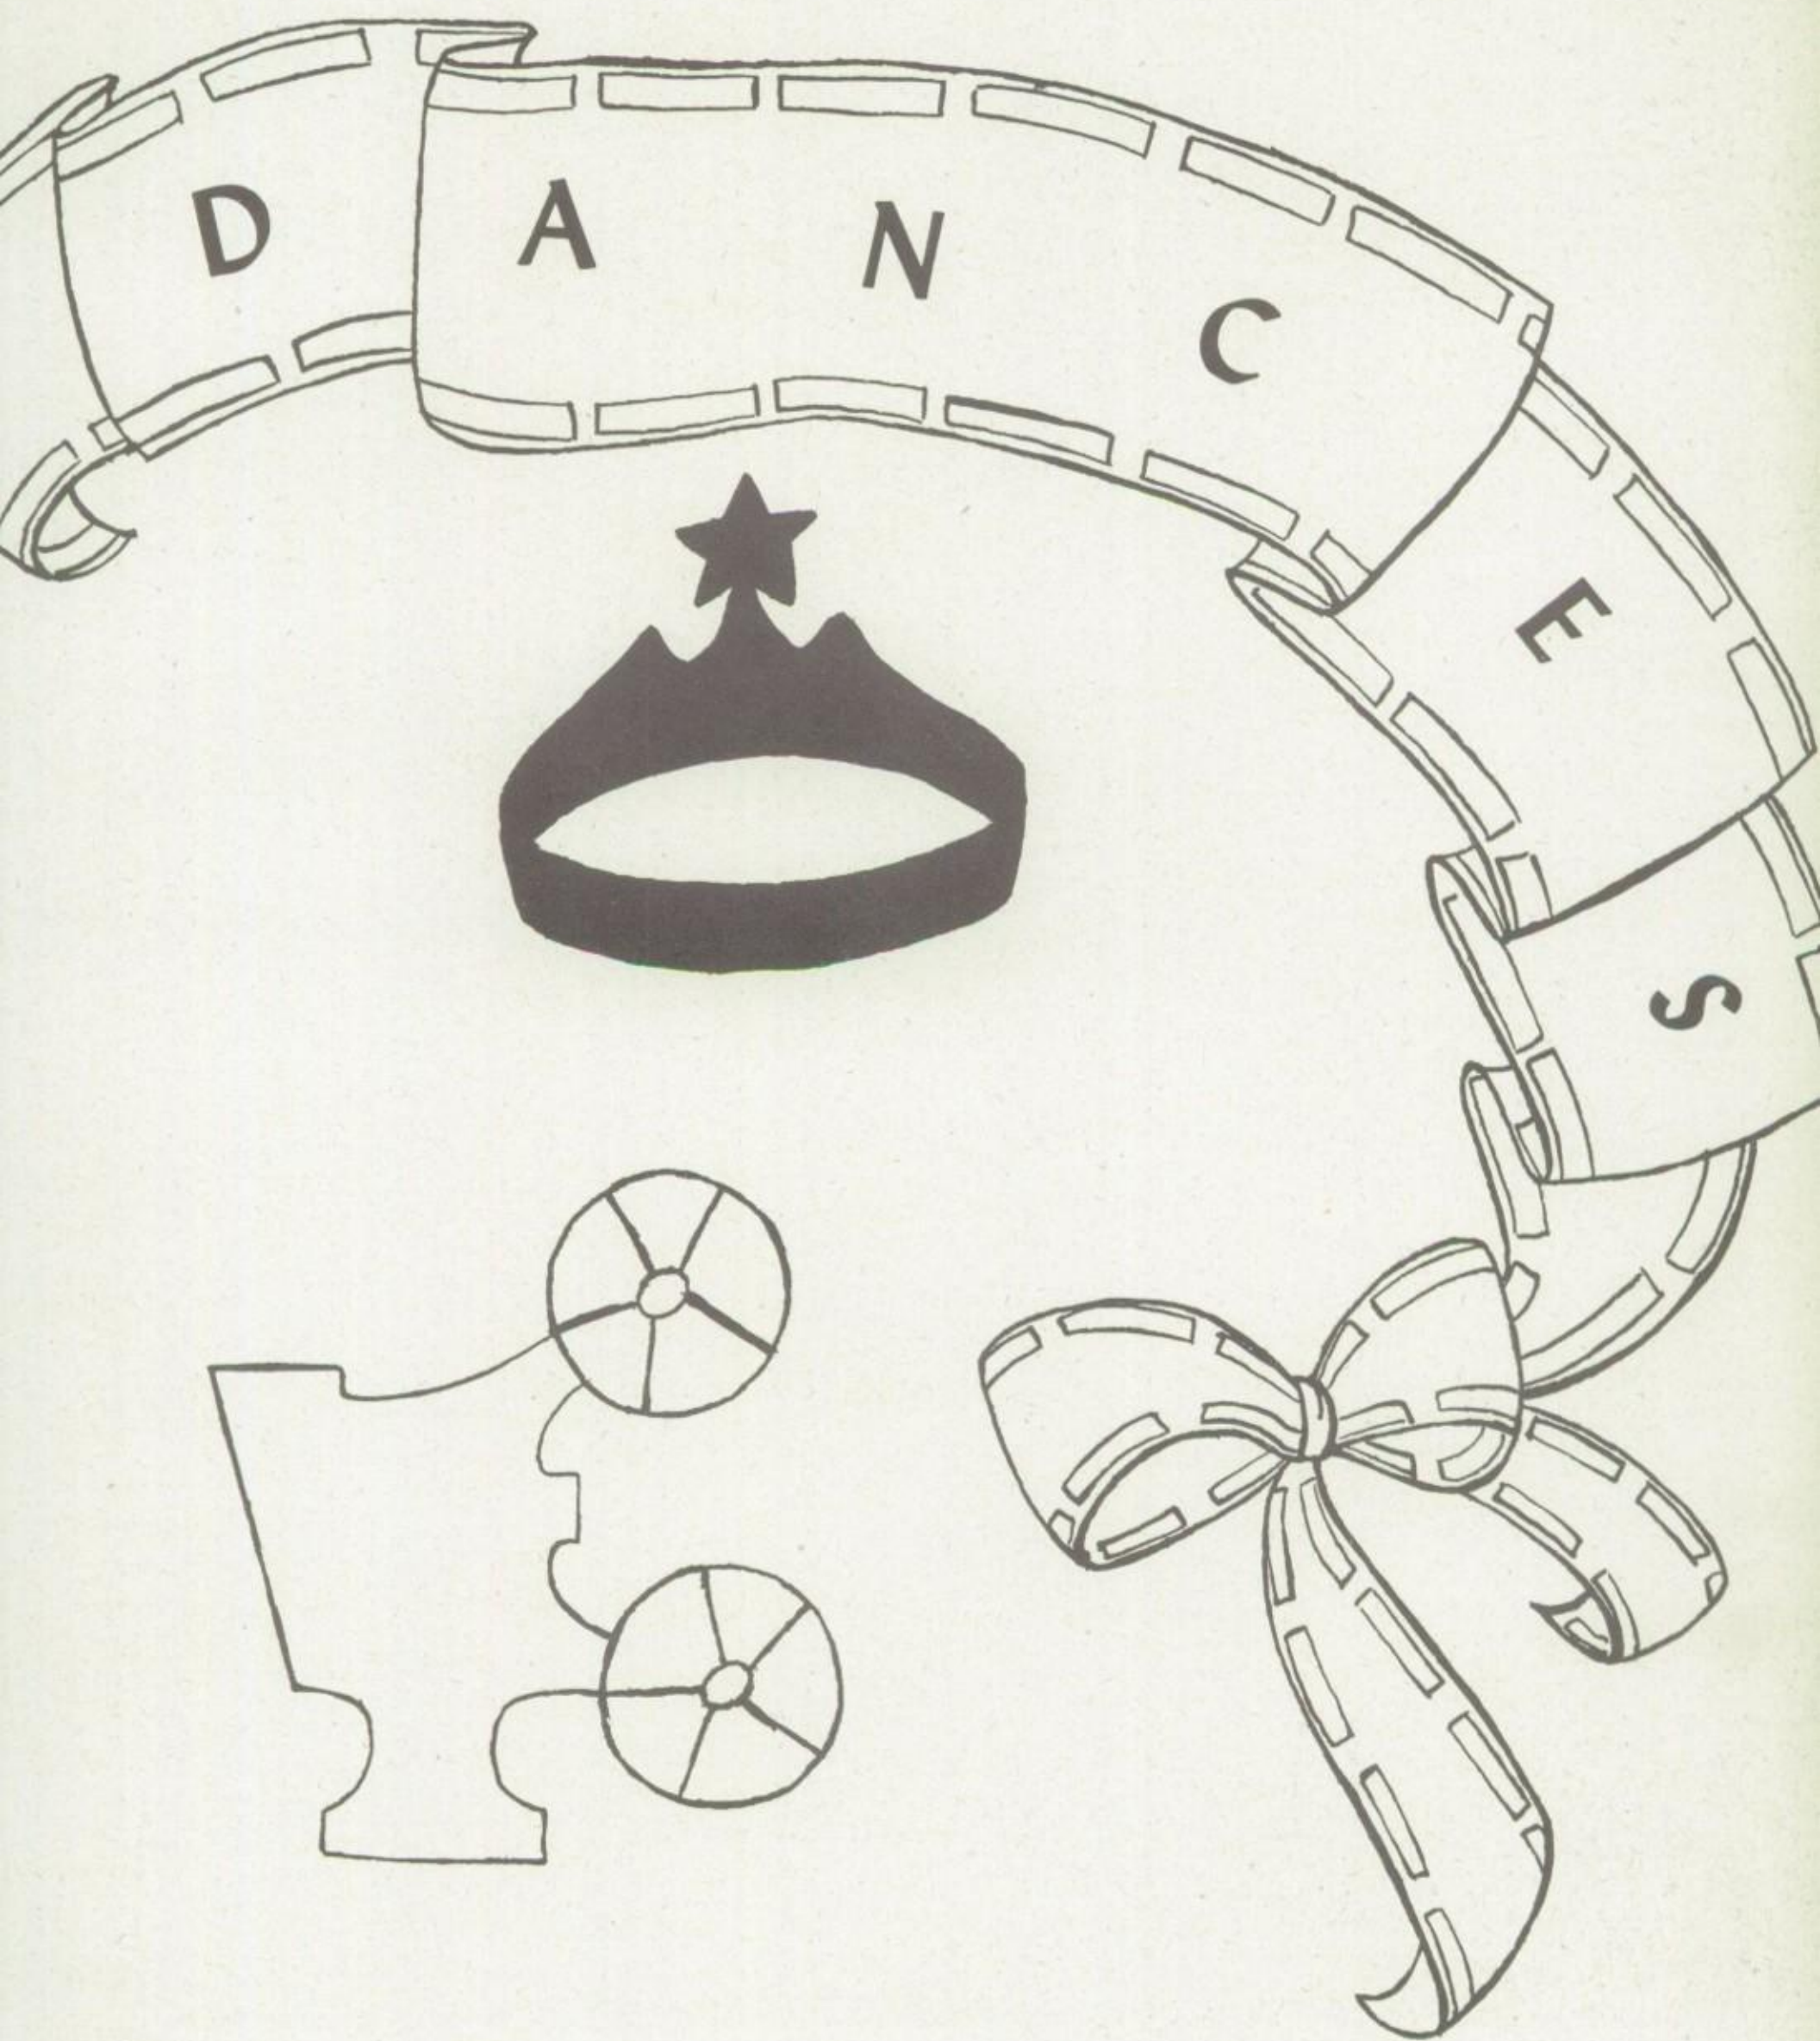

Office Assistants Jeanne Finley, Jerrie Ramsey, Sue Meekins, Joy Milhoan, Judith Wile, Marilyn Tressel, Armande Heller, Faye Smith, Nina Riblett, and Patti Lessak gain practical office experience by assisting Mrs. Dorothy Sharp with the many routine tasks encountered in the running of our high school office.

The Student Librarians assist Miss Grace DeWitt with the maintenance, distribution, and shelving of the more than eight thousand books and magazines contained in our high school library.

Our Student Projectionists, under the supervision of Mr. Willis Kurtz, assist throughout the year in operating the school's projectors, giving up their study halls to show films for various classes.
